He has earned numerous awards for his efforts, including the John Courtney Award for excellence in religious study and proclamations from the Pennsylvania House of Representatives for leadership in the church and community. Patterson has organized community services and youth groups, and worked with the Boy Scouts of America organization. He has served on several non-profit Boards of Directors, continuing to reach beyond the expectations of his employment and into

Vickie Mazzoli Roolf

Vickie Mazzoli Roolf (attended 1959-1963) - Vickie Mazzoli Roolf graduated from Springdale High School in 1963. She took her multiple talents to Mt. Mercy College, Temple University, and graduated from Sherwood School of Music in 1967 with a degree in music education. Upon graduation, she secured a teaching position at St. Alphonsus School, where she developed the school's music curriculum and directed the children's choir. She has worked with students from pre-school to adult learners with great success. Arguably, Roolf's greatest service has been to her community. She has made meaningful contributions from her days at SHS and remains a faithful volunteer for St. Alphonsus Church, the Cheswick-Springdale Lions' Club, the Springdale High School Alumni Association, and the Dynamo Education Foundation, serving in officer positions in several of the organizations. She was also elected to the Cheswick Borough Council and served as its President. Roolf's life has been marked by her commitment to enhancing the organizations she has touched and seeking ways to improve the community for the betterment of all.
